

By being granted consultative status with the International Maritime Organization (IMO) in July 2024, CIMAC has reached a significant milestone. Since, we have actively engaged in key IMO committees that are critical to our members. Our objective is to leverage CIMAC's expertise to make meaningful contributions that will influence the future of the maritime industry. In an online Town Hall Meeting

CIMAC's engagement with the IMO: Shaping the future of the maritime industry on 13th May 2025 from 1:00 - 2:30 p. m.

followed by a 30 mins Q&A session, we would like to provide an overview of our progress, upcoming initiatives, and our strategic direction with the IMO. The event starts with an Opening remark by Rick Boom, CIMAC President. Eero Lehtovaara, CIMAC VP Digitalization, Acc. Rep. to IMO and Leo Budicin, CIMAC IMO Coordinator, will be the speakers. Daniel Erdmann, CIMAC Deputy Secretary General will moderate.

Join us to learn how your interests are being represented and how you can contribute to advancing CIMAC's work within the IMO.
